4. WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT :

Sexual harassment may be one or a series of incidents involving unwelcoming sexually determined behavior as physical contacts and advances, sexually coloured remarks, showing pornography and sexual demands, whether by words or actions.

"Sexual Harassment" includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behavior (whether directly or by implication) viz.-

- Physical contact and advances or
- Demand or request for sexual favours, or
- Making sexual coloured remarks or
- Showing pornography or
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non verbal conduct of sexual nature.

FOLLOWING CIRCUMSTANCES ALSO CONSTITUTED SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

- Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in her employment;
- Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in her employment; or
- Implied or explicit threat about her present or future employment status;
- Interference with her work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment for her; or
- Humiliating treatment likely to affect her health or safety.

IF YOU ARE BEING HARASSED :

- Tell the accused that his/her behaviour is unwelcome and ask him/her to stop.
- Keep a record of incidents (dates, times, locations, possible witness, what happened, your response). It is not mandatory to have a record of events to file a complaint, but a record can strengthen your case and help you term or condition of the settlement arrived at has not been complied with by the respondent, the Committee shall proceed to make an inquiry into the complaint or, as the case may be, forward the complaint to the police.

c. INQUIRY INTO COMPLAINT :

- (i) The Chairperson of the Committee will proceed to determine whether the allegations (assuming them to be true only for the purpose of this determination) made in the complaint fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment, preferably within 30 days from receipt of the complaint. In the event, the allegation does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment or the allegation does not constitute an offence of Sexual Harassment, she/he will record this finding with reasons and communicate the same to the complainant.
- (ii) If the Chairperson of the Committee determines that the allegations constitute an act of sexual harassment, s/he will proceed to investigate the allegation with the assistance of the Committee members.
- (iii) Where both the parties are employees, the parties shall, during the course of inquiry, be given an opportunity of being heard and a copy of the findings shall be made available to both the parties enabling them to make representation against the findings before the Committee.
- (iv) Where such conduct on the part of the accused amounts to a specific offence under the law, the Company shall initiate appropriate action in accordance with law by making a complaint with the appropriate authority.
- (v) The Complaints Committee shall conduct such investigations in a timely manner and shall submit a written report containing the findings and recommendations to the Board of Directors.
- (vi) For the purpose of making an inquiry as mentioned above, the Committee shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 when trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely :-
 - ❖ summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath; requiring the discovery and production of documents; and any other matter which may be prescribed.
